

IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Kent Ryser, Volunteer

When not at Camp I'm a: Walmart Associate at Store #5099 in Grand Junction, Colorado

I've volunteered at Roundup River Ranch for: 7 years

Favorite camp activity: Anything outdoors with the campers!

Favorite meal at Camp: No-hands spaghetti dinner

Favorite Camp dance: Reach for the Stars and grooving for your food.

How would you describe camp in three words? Beauty, laughter, and sweetness

In what volunteer role(s) do you serve at Roundup River Ranch? Cabin volunteer and Walmart group volunteer

What motivates you to volunteer at Roundup River Ranch? Watching the campers laugh, play, and be themselves.

Why do you think it is important to provide camp experiences to children with serious illnesses? Campers can get outside and enjoy activities that they usually don't have the chance to experience.

What is your favorite memory as a Roundup River Ranch volunteer? Getting painted from head to toe by campers!

Why would you encourage others to volunteer at camp? It can be rewarding to know you can make a difference in their lives. Volunteering changes your life for the better while helping children with serious illnesses.
